GISC offers ongoing professional development and supervision groups for coaches in virtual and face-to-face groups. These groups meet monthly for 120-minute sessions.

In a supportive community of coaches, participants will have an opportunity to address their practice dilemmas, case examples, and self-awareness issues, as well as have time to practice, widen, and deepen their coaching skills.

“Every time I attend my Professional Development Group, I become more grounded in my responsibilities as a coach, more connected to my sense of purpose. When I am facing challenges, feeling stuck or just curious about my work, the group offers concrete ideas for moving forward and helps me see the bigger picture with fresh eyes. There is no question that my Professional Development Group enables me to better serve my clients.”
